July Highlights 2017

On July 4, the SPIBA Industrial Committee organized a round table on "Best practices of waste recycling/Alternatives to environmental fees: which factors hinder the development of recycling market in Russia". The event covered issues of regulation of various aspects of waste management; creation of a new system for handling solid municipal and industrial waste; on the problems of the formation of the industry in the collection and processing of waste and other initiatives in the field of sustainable development. Roman Ishmukhametov, associate, Baker McKenzie, moderated the meeting. Among the participants of the discussion were representatives of various spheres, including Baker

McKenzie, YIT Service Russia, the Research Center of the European University in St. Petersburg, Coca-Cola HBC Russia, Baltika Breweries, the Environmental movement "Separate collection", Northern Environmental Finance Corporation and KPMG. The topic aroused a keen interest of the listeners – after the main speech was over, the question session lasted for a long while.
