

SPIBA October 2015 events

October 14th SPIBA organized a Business Breakfast with Oleg Zherebtsov, General Director, Pharmaceutical Company Solopharm, founder of the “Lenta” shopping complexes and “Norma” retail network. In his presentation on the topic “Molecules and Technology: Pharma in 2015” Oleg told the guests of the meeting for the pharmaceuticals are made, how the modern production lines work without help of people. Oleg pointed out some current issues that they face working in pharma-business which include the difficulties of technologies transfer, and lack of governmental support of pharma-industry, despite the significance of pharmaceuticals production in Russia.

Read more – See photos – Read feedback: Sergey Dekussar, Ahlers Rus

October 27th SPIBA conducted a seminar in collaboration with the Consulate General of Belgium on the topic: “Russia today: review of economic situation”. Lilia Radyushkina, Deputy Director of North West Hub, Head of Corporate Banking Division, Raiffeisen Bank, talked about the key macroeconomic indicators, investment and industrial activity, labor market, central bank policy, banking system and economic situation in the North-Western district.

Read more – See photos

October 28th SPIBA HR and Legislation & Lobbying Committees conducted a round table on the topic “Obligatory application of the professional standards: the ways they can have an influence on business.” Dmitry Semenovich Cherneyko, Chairman of the Labor and Employment Committee, became an invited guest of the meeting. Other speaker gave presentations on the following topics:

- Anastasia Skoblikova, lawyer Baker&McKenzie: “Professional standards. Reasons and nature of the legal changes”
- Mikhail Mikhailovich Kharitonov, Associate professor of the labor law and occupational safety department, SPSU, candidate of legal sciences: “Problem of the obligatory application of professional standards as the requirements to the employee’s qualification”
- Svetlana Smirnova, HR and Consulting manager, Mazars: “What is going to change in the work of HR department once the new professional standards come to force?”

Read more – See photos

October 2nd – The SPIBA Quality of life Committee: round table “St. Petersburg and the hotels of the city in the mirror of international tourism”. Special guests of the event: Nana Gvichia, Deputy Chairman of the Committee for Tourism of St. Petersburg, and Leonardo Bencini, the Consul General of Italy in St. Petersburg.

Read more – See photos

October 9th - The SPIBA Marketing & Communications Committee “Media Meeting” session: meeting with Konstantin Bocharsky, the founder of Pressfeed service meant for cooperation of PR experts and journalists, coach of School of Proper Communications Comunicum, topic:“Sophisticated PR. Efficient operation with mass media via Pressfeed.ru”

Read more – See photos

October 15th - Get Together@Paulaner to celebrate Oktoberfest

See photos

October 20th - SPIBA Legislation & Lobbying Committee: seminar “Topical taxation issues”.

Read more – See photos

October 22nd - SPIBA Finance Committee: business meeting “Dashboards. What is it? Who needs it? Has anybody done it?”

Read more – See photos

October 23rd - SPIBA Industrial Committee and Nissan Manufacturing Rus: event on the topic “Popularization of electric vehicles and development of service stations network for battery charging in St. Petersburg”.

Read more - See photos – Read post-release

October 29th - UK Trade and Investment invites you to take part in the Advanced Engineering Day that will be organised in the British Consulate-General in Saint Petersburg

Read more

Participate in the SPIBA FACES project!

Click here for more info

Follow us on

